

Latch Install Instructions

Screw should be installed at a horizontal even or just above the height of the extension end when raised up. See Red line, and vertical position in center of downspout, Blue line.